1620

THURSDAY, AUGUST 28. 1740.

1618.

Yesterday arriv'd a French Mail, with Letters of Saturday last, advising, That the Pope's Nuncio at Paris has made a great Entertainment, with Illuminations, for the Choice of the New Pope; and that the Courier who came to him with the News, brought him also a Letter from his Holiness for the French King.

On the 11th Instant, O. S. the Shrines of St. Marcel and St. Genevieve at Paris were uncover'd, and the Head of St. Denis expos'd, in pursuance of an Arret of Parliament, in order to obtain by their Intercession favourable Weather for the Harvest. The Archbishop of Paris has with this View also issued the following Mandate; viz.

CHARLES, &c. by the Divine Mercy, and by the Grace of the Holy Apostolical See, Archbishop of Paris, Duke of St. Cloud, Peer of France, a Knight Commander of the Order of the Holy Ghost, &c. To the Archpriests of St. Mary Magdalen and St. Severin, and to the Rural Deans of our Diocese, Health and Benediction.

The Concern we ought in Charity to have for the Poor, induc'd us some Months ago to order Publick Prayers for the Preservation of the Fruits of the Earth, which were in some Danger from a bad Season, the Consequence of a severe and tedious Winter: And we had the comfortable Experience of the Truth of the Psalmist's Assurance, 'That the Lord is always nigh to those who call upon him in the Sincerity of their Hearts.'

The too frequent Rains which pour down upon us at present, and are so likely to damage the Harvest, for which the People are so impatient, renew our Alarms, and engage us to have Recourse to the same Methods that we have formerly practis'd with Success, in order to avert the Scourges with which we are threaten'd, and to draw down the Blessings of Heaven upon our Fields.

Let us therefore pray to him, who, as Job says, 'Bindeth up the Waters in the Clouds, that they may not fall upon the Earth all at once,' to put a Stop to the Storms of Rain and Wind, of which we dread the Effects, and to send us serene Weather fit to ripen the Corn which is yet standing, and to restore to us that Joy and Security of which we have been deprived by such Marks of his just Indignation as are but too evident.

The Menaces with which he seems to treat us by shewing us the Punishments which his Justice is preparing for us, ought, instead of discouraging us, to excite our Confidence. He designs by this, to oblige us to take just Measures to obtain from his Mercy the Pardon of our Crimes. 'Tis a Signal which he holds forth in order to warn those that fear him, to apply to him for Shelter from the avenging Arrows which he is ready to let fly against them.

But as we don't want to be inform'd, that the surest and even the only Remedy to appease the Divine Wrath is, to have Recourse to Repentance, let us not only cease to offend him, but endeavour also to atone for our past Transgressions by our Tears, our Sighs, and Lamentations. Let us add to the Sentiments of a contrite and humble Heart, the external Works of Christian Mortification, and let us especially put in Practice what the Apostle recommends to us in these Words, 'Remember to exercise Charity, and to give to others a Share of the good things which you enjoy; for with such Sacrifices God is well pleased.'

For these Reasons, &c.

Given at Paris, from our Archiepiscopal Palace, the 22d Day of August, 1740.

Sign'd, CHARLES, Archbishop of Paris.

L O N D O N.

Letters from Constantinople, by Way of Venice, say, that the People are still dissatisfy'd, notwithstanding the Removal of the Grand Vizier and several other of the Ministers, and that the Populace and the Janizaries start new Pretences every Day for censuring the present Government, which they complain does not take proper Measures for opposing the Designs of Kouli-Kan. The Malecontents demand also the Head of the Kishlar-Aga, or Chief of the Eunuchs, who is the Arbitrator of the Seraglio, and absolute Master of the Grand Signior's Temper.

The King of Prussia came by Water to Cologne, on the 17th instant at Night, but he was incog. so nobody knew it till next Morning, a few Minutes before he proceeded to Cleves: But his Brother Prince William did not follow him till two Hours after; because he stay'd to see the Metropolitan Church, its Treasure, and the Bodies of the Three Kings who came to adore our Saviour. They lie in a Chapel behind the Choir. The Inhabitants of Cologne have such a profound Veneration for them, that 'tis dangerous so much as to question, in a Company of the Burghers, whether they are genuine. In 1162, when they were first brought from Milan into the City, which was thro' a Gate towards the Rhine, it was wall'd up, that nothing might profane the Place thro' which these Sacred Relicks pass'd. Fame attributes many Miracles to them, and they sell for a Penny a Dozen little Notes which have touch'd them, and are suppos'd therefore to have some of their Virtue.

By Letters from Naples, dated 16 Inst. N. S. we have Advice, that the Mirta-Maria-Paly, Tho. Lingifer, bound from Gallipoli to Rotterdam, and the Amsterdam Gally, Henry Vering, bound from Trani with Corn for Lisbon, had been taken and brought into Messina by a Spanish Privateer of 18 Guns and 130 Men; altho' both the Ships were Dutch, yet they pretended the Cargo of the first belong'd to British Subjects, and that the latter both Ship and Cargo were good Prize, the Captain being a Native of England, tho' a Burgher of Amsterdam. The Spaniards seldom want Pretences to keep Possession, however unjustly obtain'd.

Surely this must open the Eyes of Gentlemen who prefer Shipping in Neutral Ships to British Ships (even in the River Thames) for Portugal, Italy, &c. when they are not regarded going to or from their own Ports, and when they can get the same Freight by discharging at Cadiz or St. Sebastian, as if they proceeded to Venice.

They write from Gallipoli the 11th Inst. N. S. that the Master of a Bark which was arriv'd there reported, that the John, Peter Blomart, which sail'd from thence the Beginning of this Month for England, had been taken by a Spanish Privateer off of Caurone; but they hoped he might, believing that Capt. Blomart would stand for the Channel of Malta.

The Cutter, Folkston, arriv'd at Dover; the Master and People declare they were chac'd last Monday, near Bologn, by a Lug-sail Boat with about 40 Men; that she was once within Musket-shot of them, but did not fire; that they could then see the Men strip to their Shirts, in order, as they imagine, to board them; but that the Cutter, upon crowding all her Sails, luckily gain'd Way of her; upon which the Boat left them and follow'd a Sloop, whom they chac'd into Bologn; they take the Sloop to be the London Packet, Capt. Channel, one of the Bologn Traders.

The Two Sisters, Bursell, of and for Dartmouth from Christiansand in Norway, is taken by a Spanish Sloop, and carried into Havredegace.

The William, Screen, of London, arriv'd at Pool from Havredegace, declares, that he was oblig'd to pay by way of Contribution 20 Guineas to a Spanish Row-boat, in order to come out of Havre.

We hear from Banbury, that on Monday Se'night a Barber of that Town, having laid a Wager of five Shillings that he ran from that Town to Deddington, and back again, (which is computed about 10 Miles) in two Hours, perform'd the same within 100 Yards in an Hour and three Quarters, when he dropp'd down and died on the Spot, having drank too freely of Brandy and Water. He has left a Wife and three Children.

The same Day a Woman of Banbury hang'd herself.

From Newcastle, that a few Days since died, at Penrith, Mr. George Fothergill, a considerable Dealer in that Place; who, in every Branch of Business behav'd with the strictest Honour and Integrity, and is greatly lamented by that Town and Neighbourhood.

A curious Monument is finish'd by Mr. Carter of Hay-hill near Hyde-park Corner, in order to be erected in the Chapel in the Broadway Westminster, to the Memory of the late Charles Jervais, Esq; Painter to his Majesty.

Yesterday their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales were at Marybon, to see Mr. Casle's curious Grotto there.

The same Day died in an advanced Age, at Highgate, William Freymore, Esq; said to have died worth 4000 l. per annum.

On Tuesday Night last a Gentleman of great Age and great Fortune attempted to drown himself in the Reservoir in Hyde-park, but being prevented, he soon after stab'd himself in so desperate a Manner that his Life is despair'd of.

Yesterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleas'd to appoint Capt. Correll to be Captain of the Lion, a 60 Gun Ship, which lately run foul of the Victory, in the Room of Capt. Smith, who has resign'd.

Likewise to appoint Mr. Stanhope, a near Relation to the Right Hon. the Lord Harrington, to be a Lieutenant of the Litchfield, a 50 Gun Ship, commanded by Capt. John Torvey, in the Room of Lieut. Gould, who on account of his ill State of Health has resign'd.

And they were sworn in and receiv'd their Commissions accordingly.

To-morrow begins the General Quarter Sessions at Hicks's-hall for the County of Middlesex. And On Wednesday next at the Old Bailey.

Yesterday 18 Men out of each Company of the three Regiments of Foot-guards doing Duty here were relieved by the like Number from the Camp at Hounslow.

We hear that Benjamin Lancaster, Footman to Sir John Smith, Bart. of Queen's-square, Ormond-street, was Yesterday before Col. De Veil, and voluntarily made Oath, That on Friday the 15th of this instant August (the Night in which the late Mr. Milaubin was murder'd) he was assaulted, and severely wounded by two Men, who knock'd him down in a Field near Mary Le Bone Basin, and robb'd him of about Three Shillings in Silver, some Halfpence, a Handkerchief, three Keys, a Pair of Shoe-Buckles, and a Pair of Knee Buckl's.

By Advice from the Oldest Lottery Office at Charing-Cross kept by Mr. Francis Wilson (which is removed, for the Convenience of Coaches drawing up to the Door, from the Narrow Passage below to the Broad Way directly behind the King on Horseback, and next Door but one to the Men's Front Gate) we are informed that Tickets in this present Lottery are there disposed of at the lowest Prices; and for the Convenience of such Adventurers who are inclined to extend their Chance to several different Numbers at a small Expence, there is constantly open for Sale a large Variety of Tickets divided into Shares of Halves, Quarters, Eights, and Sixteenth Parts in as many different Numbers as the Adventurers please: His Register Book by long Experience is contrived to be so correct, that whoever enters the Numbers of their Tickets in it at Six Pence each, cannot fail of the most exact as well as expeditious Accounts of their Success, whether good or otherwise sent them to any Part whatsoever.

HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimic, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a deprav'd Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, four Belchings, Cholick, Uneasiness in the Bowels, and ill Fumes, which offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Gladness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinaacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.
